

Shariah

We would like to feature our new
Shariah practice area.

SHARIAH

We understand that Shariah Law is a much more personal area of law in comparison to other areas of law. Thus choosing a law firm to advise on such a personal area is an important one.

At Zul Rafique & Partners, we truly understand the needs of our clients when facing difficult and complex situations related to Shariah Law to ensure that your rights and interests remain safeguarded. With our team members' qualifications in Islamic law and our wide-ranging experience, we are uniquely equipped to appreciate the nuances of the Shariah law landscape.

Our team of professionals will also work closely with our clients to plan ahead on matters related to succession planning such as wasiat, faraid, waqf and hibah, and Islamic family matters including matrimonial, custody and jointly acquired property to ensure that you will get the best possible results and outcome.
