C LEGAL PROFESSION: Disciplinary proceedings – Disciplinary Board – Professional misconduct – Advocate and solicitor struck off from Roll – Whether decision excessive, harsh and disproportionate in absence of criminal element – Whether wrong had been remedied – Whether decision missed humanitarian aspect – Whether High Court correct in setting aside decision of Disciplinary Board

D This was the appellant's appeal against the decision of the High Court setting aside the Disciplinary Board's ('DB') order in striking out the respondent off the Roll of an Advocate and Solicitor and substituted it with the order that the respondent be suspended from practice as an advocate and solicitor for a period. The respondent was retained by one Zainab to handle the purchase of a property at the purchaser price of RM58,800. The property was assigned to AmBank (M) Bhd ('AmBank'). Upon the signing of the sale and purchase agreement, the full purchase price was paid but no receipt of payment was issued by the respondent. Out of the purchase sum, RM4,800 was paid to the vendor and the remaining RM54,000 was to be used to redeem the property from AmBank. However, the respondent failed to redeem the property, stating that there were outstanding administrative and maintenance fees owed by the vendor to the developer and the balance amount of RM54,000 was insufficient to redeem the property. As the applicant failed to execute the sale transaction after the lapse of five years, a letter of complaint was sent to the DB against the respondent. The Disciplinary Committee, after having heard the evidence of relevant parties, found the respondent had committed professional misconduct against the complainant and thereafter, the DB made its decision. The respondent submitted that the sentence to be struck off the Roll by the DB was excessive, harsh and disproportionate as there was no criminal element in the respondent's case but misconduct for failing to pay the balance sum to the assignee bank. The respondent also had remedied the wrong committed by paying more than the full amount of the purchase price of the property. The questions posed for the court's consideration were: (i) where it had been determined that an advocate and solicitor is dishonest and had committed misconduct through misappropriation of client's monies (breach of trust), whether it amounted to misconduct sufficient to merit the advocate and solicitor being struck off the Roll; (ii) whether the act of late repayment of the monies misappropriated by the solicitor a mitigating factor sufficient to excuse the said solicitor from being struck off the Roll as opposed to a mere suspension; and (iii) whether the considerations for sentencing in disciplinary proceedings were aimed to protect the public, deter the other practitioners, or limited to punishing the errant solicitor according to his circumstances.

Held (dismissing appeal with no order as to costs)

Per Hamid Sultan Abu Backer JCA delivering the judgment of the court:

- (1) The jurisprudence as to sentencing has been a harsh dictate by legislation as well as courts in cases related to criminal and/or quasi-criminal offence, notwithstanding there are many unhappy humanitarian issues related to custodial sentence, so much so that now there is an attempt to amend the law to treat drug users as psychological patients, inter alia, to reduce the overcrowding in prison as well as to provide basic facilities to prisoners which is currently inadequate as per the media reports. The Bar Council, by attempting to push for harsh sentence missed the humanitarian aspect. The DB's order to provide the harshest sentence to an advocate and to seek perfect idealism in a society of purported compromised values were also not realistic. It is true that the rule of law will collapse in an environment of endemic liars, thieves, kleptocrats, etc. Case laws do not suggest per se that the judge should impose the harshest punishment. (para 8)
- (2) The High Court was not plainly wrong or the decision was perverse or the rule of law had been compromised, taking a holistic view of the facts of this case as well as the principles of sentencing. It was not the policy of the court to intervene in the decision of the DB. This was not a fit and proper case to warrant appellate intervention. (para 9)
- (3) The questions posed to the court in the style of 'hardtalk' was not the courteous approach to address the Bench. It was undesirable for this court to answer the abusive questions framed by a responsible body related to rule of law, and courts should not do so like it was a case of leave to appeal to the Federal Court by posing questions of law to the Federal Court. The Court of Appeal's role here was to administer justice as per s. 69 of the Courts of Judicature Act 1964 and not under s. 96. (paras 4 & 10)

D JUDGMENT

Hamid Sultan Abu Backer JCA:

- E [1] The appellant appeals against the decision of the learned High Court Judge who had set aside the Disciplinary Board's order which struck out the respondent's off the Roll of advocate and solicitor and substituted it with an order that the respondent be suspended from practice as an advocate and solicitor for a period.

- F [2] The appellant and respondent had relied on the following cases:
G (i) Dinesh Kanavaji Kanawagi & Anor v. Ragumaren Gopal; Majlis Peguam (Intervener) [2018] 2 CLJ 1; (ii) Choong Yik Son v. Majlis Peguam Malaysia [2008] 10 CLJ 101; (iii) Datuk M Kayveas & Anor v. Bar Council [2013] 7 CLJ 533; (iv) Re A Solicitors [1936] 1 LNS 43; [1936] MLJ 192; (v) Bolton v. Law Society [1994] 2 All ER 486; (vi) David Abraham Samson Paul v. Syed Shahir Syed Mohamud & Ors [2012] 7 CLJ 830; (vii) Majlis Peguam Malaysia v. Lim Yin Yin [2018] 1 LNS 2003; [2018] MLJU 986; (viii) Gana Muthusamy v. Tetuan LM Ong & Co [1998] 4 CLJ 878; (ix) Vasandi Kandasamy v. Pasupathy Suburamaniam; Majlis Peguam Negara (Intervener) [2015] 1 LNS 702; (x) Majlis Peguam Malaysia v. Hari Krishnan Jeyapalan [2017] 4 CLJ 225; (xi) Iszam Kamal Ismail v. Prestij Bestari Sdn Bhd, Majlis Peguam Malaysia (Intervener) [2017] 10 CLJ 417; (xii) Ong Keh Keong v. Lembaga Tatatertib Peguam-Peguam [2017] 1 LNS 1528; (xiii) Song Teik Kim v. Lina Dimbad & Anor [2019] 7 CLJ 223.

- H [3] Learned counsel for the appellant has summarised the issues for consideration related to sentencing as follows:

I

- Q-1: it has been determined that an advocate and solicitor is dishonest, and has committed misconduct through misappropriation of client's monies (breach of trust), whether it amounts to misconduct sufficient to merit the advocate and solicitor being struck off the Rolls? A
- Q-2: whether act of the late repayment of the monies misappropriated by the solicitor a mitigating factor sufficient to excuse the said solicitor from being struck off the Rolls as opposed to a mere suspension; B
- Q-3: whether the considerations for sentencing in disciplinary proceedings are aimed to protect the public, deter the other practitioners, or limited to punishing the errant solicitor according to his circumstances? C

[4] It must be noted that questions posed to the court in the style of 'Hardtalk' is not the courteous approach to address the Bench. The subject matter also relates to sentencing where the court has a wide discretion based on gravity as well as other established principles. D

Brief Facts And Grounds

[5] The brief facts and grounds of the case placed in a rudimentary manner before us is repeated to save court's time and it reads as follows:

1. The Applicant in this case filed an originating Summon to set aside the decision of the Disciplinary Board dated 15.12.2017 pursuant to subsection 103E (4) of the Legal Profession Act 1976 in which the Disciplinary Board had ordered the Applicant to make restitution to the complainant in the sum of RM58,800.00. It was further ordered that the Applicant be struck off the Roll of the Advocates & Solicitor of High Court of Malaya with effect 21 days from the date of the order. E
  2. The applicant was retained by one Zainab Binti Hamzah to handle the purchase of a property from Mohamad Bin Ismail at the purchase price of RM58,000.00 and the property was assigned to AmBank (M) Bhd. F
  3. On 12.4.2011, a Sale and Purchase Agreement was signed by both parties and the full purchase price in the sum of RM58,800.00 has been paid but no receipt of payment was issued by the applicant. Out of this purchase sum, RM4,800.00 was paid to the vendor. The remaining RM54,000.00 was to be used to redeem the property from AmBank (M) Bhd. G
  4. However, the Applicant had failed to redeem the property and the reasons given by the Applicant are that there were outstanding administrative and maintenance fees owed by the vendor to the developer and balance amount of RM54,000.00 in the Applicant's client account was insufficient to redeem the property. H

- A 5. As the Applicant failed to execute the sale transaction after the lapsed of 5 years, on 9.8.2016, a letter of complaint was sent to the Advocate & Solicitor Disciplinary Board against the Applicant.
- B 6. After having heard the evidence by the relevant parties, the Disciplinary Committee finds that the Applicant has committed professional misconduct against the Complainant and thereafter, on 15.12.2017 the Disciplinary Board made its decision and grounds of its decision was informed to the Applicant by letter dated 26.2.2018.
- C 7. Applicant submitted:- The sentence to struck off the roll of Advocate and Solicitor by the Disciplinary Board is excessive, harsh and disproportionate. It was argued that there is no criminal element in the Applicant's case but misconduct for failing to pay the balance sum to the Assignee Bank, the Applicant also had remedied the wrong committed by paying more than the full amount of the purchase price of the property.
- D 8. Intervener contended:- The misconduct committed by the Applicant is serious and it involved a breach of trust. The sentence by the Disciplinary Board is appropriate and should not be disturbed by this Court.
- E 9. High Court: The Applicant's application is allowed and the decision of the Disciplinary Board in striking off the Roll of Advocate and Solicitor of the Applicant and the order to make restitution to the complainant in the sum of RM58,900.00 is set aside.

Grounds of Decision of High Court

- F 1. The High Court is guided by the facts of the case in Dinesh Kanavaji a/l Kanawagi & Anor v. Ragumaran a/l N. Gopal (Majlis Peguam, Intervener) [2018] 2 MLJ 265. In the present case, the High Court found that the Disciplinary board had failed to consider these matters:
- G i. The Applicant's misconduct was in regard to her failure to pay the balance sum to the assignee bank and there is no criminal element attributed to the Applicant.
- H ii. The Applicant has repaid more than the full amount of the purchase price.
- iii. The Applicant admitted that she has committed professional misconduct and entered into a Consent Judgment with the Purchaser with regard to a civil suit filed by the Purchaser.
- I iv. The Applicant is remorseful and had remedied the wrong committed.
2. The conduct of the applicant for not paying the balance sum to the assignee bank is poles apart from the conduct of the 1st Appellant in Dinesh Kanavaji's case where he misappropriated a sum of RM7 million belonging to several "orang asli" and yet the sentence to struck off the Roll of Advocate and Solicitor was replaced by the Federal Court with suspension of 5 years.

3. Therefore, the High Court finds that the sentence meted out by the Disciplinary Board in the present case is manifestly harsh. A
4. The sentence by the Disciplinary Board is hereby substituted with a sentence of suspension for a period of 4 years with effect from 15.12.2017.

[6] The memorandum of appeal reads as follows: B

1. Bahawa Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya telah terkhilaf dari segi undang-undang dan fakta-fakta apabila Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya gagal mengambil kira bahawa kelakuan Responden yang telah salah guna wang anakguam dalam akaun anakguam ('Client's account') adalah serius ('grave impropriety'); C
2. Bahawa Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya telah terkhilaf dari segi undang-undang dan fakta-fakta apabila Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya gagal mempertimbangkan kesan-kesan pecah amanah dan tanggungjawab Responden sebagai seorang pemegang amanah dan 'stakeholder' adalah terjumlah sebagai ketidakjujuran yang sebenar ('actual dishonesty') dan adalah tidak relevan sama ada jumlah wang yang terlibat adalah kecil atau besar; D
3. Bahawa Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya telah terkhilaf dari segi undang-undang dan fakta-fakta apabila Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya mengetepikan Perintah Lembaga Tatatertib Peguam-Peguam tanpa mengambil kira pengakuan daripada Responden beliau sendiri dalam Penghakiman Persetujuan yang dimasukkan antara Responden dan Pengadu semasa pendengaran yang diadakan di hadapan Jawatankuasa Tatatertib Peguam-Peguam bahawa Responden sendiri adalah bersalah atas kecuiaan profesional dalam menyempurnakan transaksi jual beli; E
4. Bahawa Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya telah terkhilaf dari segi undang-undang dan fakta-fakta apabila Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya gagal mengambil kira bahawa alasan-alasan yang diberikan oleh Responden semasa Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya adalah tidak disokong oleh apa-apa keterangan; F
5. Bahawa Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya telah terkhilaf dari segi undang-undang dan fakta-fakta apabila Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya gagal mengambil kira bahawa Responden tidak dapat memberikan sebarang penjelasan atas kelewatan dalam membayar baki harga belian kepada Bank Assignee walaupun telah menerima dua (2) salinan Kenyataan Penebusan ('Redemption Statement'); G
6. Bahawa Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya telah terkhilaf dari segi undang-undang dan fakta-fakta apabila Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya gagal mengambil kira bahawa peranan Jawatankuasa Tatatertib Peguam-Peguam adalah sebagai satu badan penyiasatan yang membunyai kuasa-kuasa untuk menyiasat dan mendengar kesemua keterangan-keterangan yang berkaitan dengan aduan dan adalah berada dalam kedudukan yang lebih wajar untuk membuat keputusan ('advantageous position') atas aduan yang dibuat; H
I

A 7. Bahawa Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya telah terkhilaf dari segi undang-undang dan fakta-fakta apabila Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya gagal mengambil kira bahawa keputusan berkenaan hukuman dibuat oleh Lembaga Tatatertib Peguam-Peguam yang terdiri daripada peguam-peguam dalam Lembaga Tatatertib yang berpengalaman; dan

B 8. Bahawa Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya telah terkhilaf dari segi undang-undang dan fakta-fakta apabila Hakim Mahkamah Tinggi Malaya tidak mengambil kira bahawa kebanyakan peguam dalam kes-kes terdahulu yang dilaporkan atas penyalahgunaan wang anak guam telah dibatalkan dari senarai daftari Peguambela dan Peguamcara. Ini merupakan hukuman yang wajar kerana sifat kesalahan yang terlibat.

C [7] Learned counsel for the appellant has summarised the principles of a number of cases. We have taken the liberty to further summarise it verbatim and reproduce as follows:

			His role is set out at para 10(b) where Dinesh claims to act in his personal capacity as shareholder and director of the company and that he is not a trustee. The disciplinary complaint discloses that it was Kanawagi, the father who allowed the release of the sum of RM7 million (para 8(a))

“Legal profession is monopolistic in character and this monopoly itself inheres certain high traditions which its members are expected to upkeep and uphold ...

The bar is not a private guild, like that of ‘barbers’, butchers and candle stick makers but by bold contract, a public institution committed to public justice and pro bono public service. The grant of a monopoly licence to practice law is based on 3 assumptions:

1. There is a socially useful function for the lawyer to perform;
2. The lawyer is a professional person who will perform that function; and
3. His performance as a professional person is regulated by himself and more formally, by the profession as a whole. The central function that the legal profession must perform

			is nothing less than the administration of justice. (See pg 212)		A

The Respondent's misappropriation of his clients' money is sufficient ground to strike him off the Roll of Advocate and Solicitors  2. It is not a question of punishing the solicitor. A further consideration must be what course should the court take to protect the public and to register its disapproval of the conduct of the solicitor (pg 221)  3. If one does not understand the reasons of the tribunal, striking out may seem harsh (pg 222)  4. To maintain public confidence in the integrity of the legal profession it is necessary that those guilty are expelled (pg 222)  5. - [8] We have read the appeal records and the able submissions of both counsel. After giving much consideration to the appellant's counsel, we take the view that the appeal must be dismissed. Our reasons inter alia are as follows: A
- (i) Learned counsel for the appellant had placed an idealistic and scientific submission related to social order and humanity. A conscientious judge, administering criminal or quasi criminal jurisdiction, in an environment of purported compromised integrity in all institutions and social life itself has greater task to evaluate the pros and cons of sentencing and its effect on the person, family, public purse, etc. Idealistic and scientific submission and sentence may be good in a community of rational people, unbiased adjudicators inclusive of tribunal or disciplinary boards, lawyers, etc and also when the motion is moved fairly and justly with no element of purported fixing, etc. From the daily reading of news, these ideals are indeed absent and in consequence a conscientious judge has to take into many relevant consideration primarily based on the person who had been found guilty and as far as practical move towards a rehabilitative form of punishment as first consideration and, only where the circumstance warrant, harsher punishment should be considered and imposed. This aspect of rehabilitative punishment is now a norm in most civilised countries and is also reflected under the Legal Profession Act 1976 and a number of cases related to it. B
- (ii) As a starting point, it must be observed that the sentencing is the most difficult part of the judicial duty to a conscientious judge who has to take into consideration the accused's interest, inclusive of his family, public interest and more so, the fact when custodial sentence imposed will impinge on the state coffers and also the quality of humanity provision and safeguard in a depleted financial environment, which may not meet with humanitarian standards, etc. F
- Example 1: Ahmad steals a bread and Kassim steals a diamond necklace. Both being a non-violent crime. Is custodial sentence proper for both the case? Should it be a rehabilitative sentence for both or at least for Ahmad? G
- Example 2: Ahmad and Kassim returned to the owner what they stole. Is custodial sentence proper for both the cases or should it be rehabilitative in nature, on humanitarian grounds, as well as to save public purse. H
- (iii) The two examples that we have stated above, have relevance to this case and the questions posed by learned counsel for the appellant. We must concede that the jurisprudence as to sentencing has been a harsh dictate by legislation as well as courts in cases related to criminal and/or quasi-criminal offence, notwithstanding there are many unhappy humanitarian I

A issues related to custodial sentence, so much so that now there is an attempt to amend the law to treat drug users as psychological patient inter alia to reduce the overcrowding in prison as well as to provide basic facilities to prisoners which is currently inadequate as per the media reports.

B (iv) The Bar Council by attempting to push for harsh sentence misses the humanitarian aspect. The Disciplinary Board's order to provide the harshest sentence to an advocate on the present fact and to seek perfect idealism in a society of purported compromised values are also not realistic. To put it mildly, it is true that the rule of law will collapse in
C an environment of endemic liars, thieves, kleptocrats, etc. Does that mean the judge should impose the harshest punishment? Case law does not suggest that per se. (See Leken Gerik (M) v. PP [2007] 8 CLJ 158 (HC); Izham Kamal Ismail v. Prestij Bestari Sdn Bhd, Majlis Peguam Malaysia (Intervener) [2017] 10 CLJ 417).

D [9] After having considered all the authorities submitted by the parties, we do not think that the learned judge was plainly wrong or the decision is perverse or the rule of law has been compromised, taking a holistic view of the facts of this case as well as the principles of sentencing. We also take note that it is not the policy of the court to intervene in the decision of the E Disciplinary Board. On the facts of the case, this is not a fit and proper case to warrant appellate intervention.

[10] Further, it is also undesirable for this court to answer the abusive questions framed by a responsible body related to rule of law and courts should not do so like it is a case of leave to appeal to the Federal Court by
F posing questions of law to the Federal Court. The Court of Appeal's role here is to administer justice as per s. 69 of the Courts of Judicature Act 1964 and not under s. 96. This distinction is not one of an apple and orange but a marble and pumpkin.

G [11] For reasons stated above, we dismiss the appeal with no order as to costs.

We hereby order so.
